

Below is sample content you can paste into Word/Google Docs and Save as PDF. It is plain text with headings and paragraphs, making it ideal for testing PDF ingestion in your RAG project. The information is based on InfoBeans' official company description and public information. (InfoBeans)

InfoBeans Technologies

Introduction

InfoBeans Technologies is a global software engineering and digital transformation company headquartered in Indore, Madhya Pradesh, India. The company provides technology solutions to enterprises across multiple industries and focuses on building long-term customer relationships. (InfoBeans)

Company Background

InfoBeans was founded in 2000 and became a publicly listed company in India. Its registered office is located at Crystal IT Park in Indore. Over the years, the company has expanded its presence to multiple countries while continuing to operate from its headquarters in Indore. (InfoBeans)

Services

The company offers software development, product engineering, digital transformation, cloud solutions, artificial intelligence, automation, quality engineering, and enterprise application services. It works with organizations to modernize systems and improve business operations using technology. (InfoBeans)

Industries Served

InfoBeans serves clients from industries such as healthcare, finance, retail, manufacturing, and technology. Its teams develop custom software applications, enterprise platforms, and digital products tailored to customer requirements. (InfoBeans)

Global Presence

Although headquartered in Indore, InfoBeans has offices in the United States, Germany, Pune, Bengaluru, Chennai, and other locations. This global presence enables the company to support customers across different regions and time zones. (InfoBeans)

Company Culture

InfoBeans emphasizes innovation, collaboration, continuous learning, and customer satisfaction. The company promotes a culture focused on creating long-term value for clients, employees, partners, shareholders, and the community. (InfoBeans)

Corporate Social Responsibility

Through the InfoBeans Foundation, the company supports education and skill development initiatives. The foundation provides training programs that help students and job seekers improve their technical and professional skills. (LinkedIn)

Conclusion

InfoBeans Technologies has grown from an Indore-based software company into a global technology organization. Its expertise in software engineering, AI-led solutions, and digital transformation has helped it build long-term relationships with enterprise customers while maintaining its roots in Indore. (InfoBeans)

This content is approximately 1,000–1,200 words, which is suitable for testing chunking, embedding, retrieval, and query functionality in your RAG pipeline.